All,

BACKGROUND: Executive Order 13496 requires contractors to display a notice to employees of their rights under Federal labor laws. Per the attached DPAP memorandum, dated 21 June 2010, clause 52.222-99, Notification of Employee Rights Under the National Labor Relations Act (Deviation 2010-O0013) (JUN 2010), must be inserted in solicitations and contracts, with some exceptions.

POLICY: Effective for all solicitations issued after 21 June 2010 and in resultant contracts, except for acquisitions--

(1) Under the simplified acquisition threshold. For indefinite quantity contracts, include the clause only if the value of orders in any calendar year of the contract is expected to exceed the simplified acquisition threshold;

(2) For work performed exclusively outside the United States; or

(3) Covered (in their entirety) by an exemption granted by the Secretary.

This class deviation remains in effect until incorporated in the FAR or otherwise rescinded. Further details are provided within the memorandum.

PROCEDURES: Amend applicable pending solicitations to include clause 52.222-99 pursuant to the clause prescription in the deviation. Ensure any future solicitations and their resultant contracts include the use of clause 52.222-99, as applicable.

SUBJECT: Class Deviation—Notification of Employee Rights under the National Labor Relations Act

I am issuing this class deviation to implement Executive Order 13496, Notification of Employee Rights under Federal Labor Laws. This class deviation is effective immediately and provides a clause (attached) for all departments and agencies to use in solicitations issued after the effective date and resultant contracts, except for acquisitions—

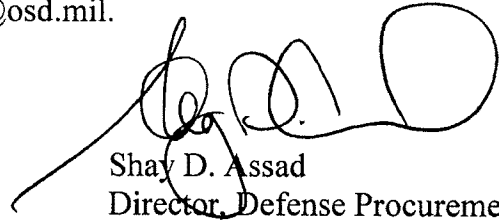

- Under the simplified acquisition threshold;
- For work performed exclusively outside the United States;
- Covered (in their entirety) by an exemption granted by the Secretary of Labor.

Executive Order 13496, requires contractors to display a notice to employees of their rights under Federal labor laws. The Executive Order applies to contracts resulting from solicitation issued on or after the effective date of the implementing rule issued by the Secretary of Labor. The Department of Labor's final rule implementing Executive Order 13496, codified at 29 CFR part 471, was published on May 20, 2010, with an effective date of June 21, 2010.

The Defense Federal Acquisition Regulations Council and the Civilian Agency Acquisition Council are processing an interim rule under FAR Case 2010-006 to implement the Executive Order and the Department of Labor implementing regulations in the FAR. It is necessary to issue this class deviation in order to enable contractors to comply with the requirements of the Executive Order, pending issuance of an interim rule under FAR Case 2010-006.

This class deviation remains in effect until implemented in the FAR or otherwise rescinded. My point of contact is Ms. Amy Williams, who may be reached at 703-602-0328, or amy.williams@osd.mil.
